□ 1855

Mr. CARSON of Indiana changed his vote from “nay” to “yea.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Ms. SCHWARTZ. Madam Speaker, on rollcall No. 790, had I been present, I would have voted “yea.”

Mr. LANGEVIN. Madam Speaker, on rollcall No. 790, I was unavoidably detained and missed the vote. Had I been present, I would have vote “yea.”

MOMENT OF SILENCE IN MEMORY OF FORMER REPRESENTATIVE BOB DAVIS OF MICHIGAN

(Mr. STUPAK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. STUPAK. Madam Speaker, I rise to regrettably inform my colleagues of the passing of former Congressman Bob Davis, who represented most of northern Michigan in Congress from 1979–1993. Bob died last Friday.

I ask the House to observe a moment of silence in his honor.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will all Members rise for a moment of silence.

Mr. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and achievements of Former Representative Bob Davis. I was deeply saddened to hear the loss of my friend Bob, a true Michigander. Through attending public schools in Mackinac County, miming a small Michigan business, and serving as a city council member, state representative and senator, Bob came to understand the state on every level. By the time he came to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1979, he truly understood the needs of Michigan's people. From his work with then-Governor George Romney to reduce the tolls on the Mackinac Bridge, to his work in the House Armed Services Committee to procure major defense weapons systems, he always worked toward tangible results for those he was serving.

Bob and I not only shared a love for Michigan and its people, but also a deep appreciation for the outdoors. Some of his greatest achievements while serving in the U.S. House were through his role as the Ranking Member on the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee. He was able to help establish the Upper Peninsula's Keweenaw National Historic Park, the Thunder Bay National Marine Sanctuary, and to protect the Great Lakes from invasive species. Even after his passing, Bob Davis' legacy and achievements will live on, in no small part through the natural and historic lands of Michigan that he fought to protect and preserve.
